Actions Taken by All Star One Former Chairs 1991-2012

Compiled from Minutes by Debbie Weiner Soule, Secretary with additional contributions from Elizabeth Yermack and Bea Robbins

1991 – no motions or appointments

1992 – M (Jack Dunn) – Anyone 75 or older should be automatically admitted – the consensus was, however, that it was ‘better not to have a formal rule.’

Appointed: New committee to Study Admissions Policies:

Don Brookfield

Lisa Jennings

Paul Jennings

Frank Robbins

Kathy Tillman

Tom Walton

Elizabeth Yermack

1993 – no minutes available

1994 – M (Tom Walton) and S (Larry Yermack) and voted:

That the guidelines for the Chairs be approved as written, changing number 2: "All conferees are on the honor system to "take off" time periodically" to "We would suggest that all conferees take a year off periodically."

M (Elizabeth Yermack) and voted: That the Blue book, in place of the confusing references to a "priority year" on the application, contain the following: "Please understand that because you have taken a voluntary "year off", you are not guaranteed automatic admission. The March 10 deadline applies to all applicants. Please communicate special admission circumstances to the Chairs."

M (Henry Powsner) and voted: Delete all reference to All Star I on the general application. (Explanation of the motion's impact: there will no longer be a blank space for priority year selection, since it resulted in confusion and abuse in the past. This issue will instead be covered by directions to communicate special circumstances to the Chairs.)

1995 – M: to approve expenses for five speakers/family members (usual max has been four).

Approved: That the chairs may send a letter to those applying to the conference which articulates the current guidelines for admissions.

Appointed: Additional members to the admissions committee to replace those departing or departed, as follows:

Those no longer serving on the committee:

Tom Walton
Elizabeth Yermack
Oscar Weiner (deceased)

Additions:

Charlie Case
Sherry Walworth
Henry Powsner

And a yet-to-be-chosen non-chair. (NB: This did not occur, but Ben Soule, incoming chair, joined the committee).

Charge to the committee: Update the data base, evaluate pros and cons of the outstanding issues (including that of a registrar, as well as the question of new shoalers); mail a report to all chairs in advance of next year's meeting at Madison. They will send around a sheet for comments and will give an interim report on the island in 1996.

1996 – M and S: To elect Charlie Case as Secretary for the meeting in Elizabeth Yermack's absence. Voted.

M (H. Powsner) and S (J. Bennett): to adopt draft 8 of the admissions policy, dated August 26, 1996.

Amendments:

M (H. Powsner) add the preamble suggested in a letter from Henry Powsner and George Easter (first four paragraphs). Voted.

M (H. Powsner): Change second para. of the policy to read "No applicant will be admitted to All Star I for a fourth consecutive year (four year rule). A friendly amendment by Ben Soule, adding the words, "unless the conference is not full by the cutoff date," was accepted by the maker of the motion and added. Voted.

M (H. Powsner): Replace the third paragraph and bullets 2 and 3 of the fourth para. with the following: "Attendance as a member of Children's Staff or Children's Staff Coordinators will not be counted as a year of attendance or a year of non-attendance." Voted.

M (H. Powsner): Add a new paragraph: "Chairs can come the year after their year as Chair whether or not they meet the four year rule." Voted.

M (H. Powsner): Strike the words: “the previous year Chairs may be included in this group” from the sentence that allows the current Chairs to admit up to fifteen applicants who would otherwise not be admitted.” Voted.

M (H. Powsner): Strike the words: “Former Chairs of All Star I who meet the four year rule will not be wait listed.” Voted.

M (H. Powsner): Strike the words: “the perceived fairness of their decisions.” Add the following considerations:

- regularity of past financial support [this clause was withdrawn before a vote was taken – DWS]
- where other criteria are met equally, priority will be given to individuals who are wait listed the previous year.
- Frequency of past All Star I attendance

Voted.

M (H. Powsner): Delete the words “at their discretion, current chairs may admit not more than 25 new shoalers.” Voted.

M (D. Weiner Soule): Add language to the first line of the policy that states that “applications must be postmarked by March 10th.” Voted.

Returning to the MAIN MOTION: The policy was Voted with instructions to the Admissions Policy Committee to perfect the language.

Action: Policy to be mailed to all who attended All Star One over the previous three years. (Action by Powsner).

M (G. Easter): To create a study group to report back in one year, evaluating the governance proposal distributed. This group would determine how long a governance group should exist and function, its relationship to the chairs, and its relationship to the former chairs body. After discussion, the motion was Voted.

Those offering to serve on such a study committee were:

Debbie Weiner Soule	Bill Clegg
John Bennett	Betsy Close

George Easter	Cathy Case
Dana Powsner	Henry Powsner

M (G. Easter) and S (D. Weiner Soule): to add an additional paragraph to the existing admissions policy: “The number of applications received may not be sufficient to fill the conference. In that case the four-year rule and the application deadline will be relaxed, permitting the acceptance of individuals with increasingly greater numbers of consecutive years’ attendance.” Voted. (Action: Policy to be mailed to all attendees over the last five years. Paula and Larry Phillips to provide cover letter.)

M (G. Easter) and S (D. Weiner Soule): to appoint a Chairs Resource Group. Voted.

Composition of the group: four appointed members: registrar, co-treasurer, children’s program coordinator, prior year’s chair; three elected members: two from more than ten years prior, one from most recent ten years.

Purpose: meet with chair-designates during All Star I to transmit registration policy and convey essential information. Group would be available during the year of policy questions arose.

Action: Henry to poll former chairs for their interest and devise an election method for the appointed positions.

M (G. Easter) and S (L. Yermack): to spend up to $200 from the All Star I treasury to purchase a cover for the electric piano bought for the island by Don Brookfield. Voted.

1998 on-island meeting – M (H. Powsner) and S (R. Cook): Parents of nominees for future chairs will excuse themselves from discussion of future chairs, but not from voting. Voted.

2001 Meeting in Madison, CT–

Affirmed by those present (no vote taken, since this was done in informal session after the formal meeting had adjourned) that chairs should use the 1997 policy which had been voted by the chairs as guideline for admissions at the 2002 conference.

Affirmed – that Henry Powsner will distribute copies of the 1997 official admissions policy, and an unapproved draft from 2000, to all former chairs.

Consensus decisions:

- 2002 chairs should solicit input from the conference as a whole in nominating future chairs.
- 2002 chairs should make efforts to eliminate perceived elitism, e.g., roll call of former chairs, roll call of number of years in attendance at All Star I, lineup of former chairs by year for Grand March, etc.
- in selecting applicants, the new chairs should give highest priority to considering the number of years an applicant has attended since last taking a year off.
- To form a governance task force.
