

★ Wanna' be a chair someday? ★

Being chair of the All Star I conference is a big, rewarding responsibility that requires time, energy, computer and organizational skills. Chairs are selected 2 years before serving so they have a chance to apprentice under the current chairs. Chairs choose the speaker, theme and minister for the week, write the blurb for the blue book, work with the RE coordinator to hire children's staff, work with the registrar to fill the conference, send out acceptance letters and information packets, make the schedule of activities, assign volunteers to run them, and work with island staff to order books, food and arrange for on island services. In addition to the year of advance planning for the conference, chairs are expected to attend the fall chairs meeting (currently held in Rhode Island) for the rest of their lives (but don't worry, it's fun). The group of past chairs makes decisions about conference policies and guidelines and are a great sounding board for your ideas about the week. Interested? Of course, not everyone who wants to be chair can be. There aren't enough years in our lifetimes. But, we'd like to be sure that those that are asked are those that are interested. You can be a single, a couple, siblings, friends, a small group! Come one come all!

Name(s): _____

Home phone: _____ Cell phone: _____

Email: _____

Why I'd/we'd like to be chair someday: _____

What interesting skill sets do you have that we may not know about that would make you even better suited to be Chairs? _____

And – this is optional, but if you have an answer we would love to hear it. What interesting idea(s) do you have for the conference that would make it even better than today? _____

Do you mind if we steal your idea(s) from question 3, before you get to be chair? _____

These forms will be kept on file. Feel free to update any time by submitting a new one.